

5. Matters Arising this Meeting

5.1. Affordable Housing Needs Survey Results.

Only 11 forms were returned. Amanda madden informed the meeting of the results which indicate a very small housing need. A summary of the results will be circulated to residents. A further meeting is to be arranged for Amanda and representatives from the parish council, NYM National Park and Planning Policy team to walk round the village and identify any suitable land which may be available for a small development of two to four houses for people in the older age bracket. These would probably be bungalows rather than houses.

5.2. Neighbourhood Watch.

There have been some breaches of the No Cold Calling Zone; they have been reported to the police. An outbuilding was broken into in Swainby but nothing was stolen. Please report anything suspicious to the police.

5.3. Winter Preparations.

The parish council has received 7 offers of help regarding this matter. Mrs Temple will prepare a list of volunteers to be circulated.
